

Welcome

SPA TOWN BAD NAUHEIM

Known for its healing springs, famous guests, and the unique spa architecture of the Sprudelhof, Bad Nauheim combines wellness, culture, and nature in a special way.

Whether strolling through the spa gardens, relaxing in the Sprudelhof Therme, shopping in the charming pedestrian zone, or following in the footsteps of Elvis Presley:

Bad Nauheim invites you to take a deep breath, discover, and linger.

MORE THAN JUST A HOTEL

Join the ranks of famous guests! Where Albert Einstein gave his lecture, Empress Elisabeth enjoyed the spa tradition, and Elvis Presley lived next door, you can now expect hearty hospitality with style.

Our 159 rooms and suites offer modern comfort with a view of the countryside. The city center, Sprudelhof Therme spa, and Jugendstilforum are just a short walk away.

Whether for a business trip, a wellness break, or an extraordinary event—this is where people, stories, and ideas come together..
